

History of Poultry Production Assessment

Matching: Match the term with its definition/description.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1. Broiler | A. Poultry raised for eggs and meat |
| 2. Hatchery | B. Business model that encompasses all aspects of poultry production |
| 3. Processor | C. Process to ensure products are healthy and consistent |
| 4. Evisceration | D. Strategies to sell poultry products |
| 5. Federal inspection and grading | E. Poultry raised for meat |
| 6. Marketing | F. The act of grouping birds to create meat, eggs, or breeders |
| 7. Production | G. Person or group that harvests and prepares the product for market |
| 8. Vertical integration | H. Removing the internal organs |
| 9. Dual purpose | I. Location where chicks are incubated and hatched |

T or F

1. ____ Prior to the 1900's, most poultry were for household use and were dual purpose birds.
2. ____ From 1910-1920, sport fighting became popular and caused no disease control issues.
3. ____ From 1920-1930's, commercial broilers were developed and maintained.
4. ____ In the 1940's, no major improvements or changes came to the poultry industry.
5. ____ The 1950's and 60's showed the movement to vertical integration in poultry production.
6. ____ The 1970's proved to be a time of great thinking in the poultry industry.
7. ____ California poultry sales are one of the state's agricultural leaders.
8. ____ Petaluma established the egg industry to produce eggs during the Gold Rush.
9. ____ Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points (HAACP) is a control system to control, reduce, or eliminate hazards.
10. ____ 50% of American poultry products are shipped worldwide.